

PROGRESS ON ADDRESSING REDD+ SAFEGUARDS

This event will showcase how Ecuador and the UN-REDD Programme are progressing in implementation of and providing information on safeguards.

Tuesday 7 June, 18.15 – 19.45
Ministry of the Environment, WIND room

OBJECTIVE

In the lead up to COP 17, this side event is designed to showcase the work on safeguards undertaken thus far at both the national and global level and the advancements made by leading countries such as Ecuador.

PROGRAM

18:15

Opening and Introduction

18:17

UN-REDD Programme's approach to REDD+ safeguards

Clea Paz-Rivera Programme Officer - National Programmes, UN-REDD Programme

18:27

Progress on the REDD+ Social and Environmental Standards Initiative

Joanna Durbin Director, The Climate, Community and Biodiversity Alliance

18:37

Implementing Social and Environmental Standards in Ecuador

Carola Borja Director of Mitigation, Ministry of Environment, Government of Ecuador

18:47

Implementing Free, Prior and Informed Consent in Vietnam

Pham Manh Cuong Director, Vietnam REDD+ Office, MARD, Government of Vietnam

18:57

Perspectives' and progress on safeguards from Indigenous People & Civil Society organizations

Victoria Tauli-Corpuz Executive Director, Tebtebba (Indigenous Peoples' International Centre for Policy Research and Education)

19:07

Discussion

19:43

Closing Remarks

*A light snack will be provided following the event.

For more information:

Reem Ismail Reem.ismail@un-redd.org Aurélie Lhumeau alhumeau@ambiente.gob.ec