

“Ensuring the effective participation of indigenous peoples in global and national REDD processes”

Victoria Tauli-Corpuz, Director, Tebtebba
Member, UN Permanent Forum on Indigenous Issues

April 23, 2010, UN Headquarters, New York

FORESTS
Traditionally Managed, Controlled and Owned by Indigenous Peoples

Hungduan, Ifugao, Philippines

Muyong - Traditionally Managed Forests and Watershed for Rice Terraces

Imugan, Nueva Viscaya, Philippines

Exchange Visit on Traditional Forest Management and Carbon Stock Calculation, January 2010

on-site lecture-demo on carbon stock calculation by Forester Tamano Bugtong of KEF

Loita Naimina Enkiyio Forest
(Traditionally Managed by Loita Maasai People)
Loita Division, Kenya and Tanzania Border

Loita Emanyatta (Village) with Surrounding Forests and Pasture Lands

After a Focused Group discussion with the Loita Council of Elders on Traditional Forest Management February 2010

“Dahas” (Traditionally Managed Forest)
Tanjung, Ketapang, Indonesia
Visit, November 2009

With Corn/Rice fields between “Dahas” and Sacred Forests, which also serves as buffer zone for forest fires

Cerra Miramar Forests in Tasba Pri Territory, Nicaragua, (affected by 2007 Hurricane)

Forests are owned and managed by territory as watershed area for six communities
Feb 2010

Nursery for reforestation project of Cerra Miramar (with Waldo, President of Tasba Pri Territorial Assembly)

In Cerra Miramar, showing land delineation map of Tasba Pri territory with 29 communities

Sahsa Community, Tasba Pri Territory, Nicaragua
(one of the 6 communities managing the Cerra Miramar watershed/forest area)

Thank you!!!

