BUILDING INTEGRITY IN REDD+

A FREE COURSE: <http://courses.transparency.org>

The course will also be made available through www.anti-corruption.org

This is one of a series of three stand-alone online courses designed to provide participants with a sturdy understanding of integrity issues in REDD+. Courses are self-guided whilst also providing the opportunity for course participants to network and exchange among and within countries.

TIME: The course is accessible at any time and should take four hours to complete. It can be taken in one or more sessions, at your own speed.

CERTIFICATION: A certificate will be available to all who complete the course.

LANGUAGES: The course is available in English and soon in French and Spanish.
